LARISSA BEHRENDT

Larissa Behrendt, the Gawura Ambassador, is a regular visitor to the Gawura and it's always wonderful to see her pop in and spend time with the students. Last Friday afternoon Larissa dropped in to catch up with the children, see what we have been doing in class and talk to us. It was great to hear that Larissa has finished her second book and it was also a wonderful opportunity to recognise Larissa being named Indigenous Person of Year (2009) during the recent NAIDOC Week Awards. Darlene, Kelsi and Taylor presented Larissa with a certificate and a gift to acknowledge her contribution to Gawura and to congratulate her on receiving such a prestigious award.

Jacqueline Jacky, Year 3.

The outrageous clown was so gawky, when he lit a firework he blew up the circus.

Tayla Welsh, Year 3.
